THE NEW YORK HERALD

VOL. LXXXVI.-NO. 273-DAILY.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, MAY 30, 1922.—ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER POST OFFICE, NEW YORK, N. Y.

PRICE TWO CENTS

the whole revitalized, is a bigger and bette and sounder newspaper than ever before

THE BEST IN ITS HISTORY. The New York Herald, with all that was best of The Sun intertwined with it, and

EACE GUARANTEE FOR A GERMAN LOAN

orld Bankers Insist Stailization of Europe Must Precede Flotation.

rmany's Promise to Pay Would Not Sufficiently

ORGAN URGES PLEDGE

an interview granted THE NEW K HERALD correspondent this afterne of the highest reparations authority added that he the Franco-British En-for political interests, whenever in-nificant differences of opinion seem ocratic strength and also considerable mar the European horizon.

viding a clearer Franco-British unters here have emphasized the at-te taken by the biggest New York ling and bond houses.

conversations on both sides of the conversations on both sides of the conflicial and otherwise, they hown clearly that there is not the st chance of getting a $1,000,000, an for Germany alone, notwithing the loudly professed sympathy midwestern States, for Germany's they are willing and ready to verything possible for Europe's wellif they believe the money they inwill carry with it the prospect that nee and England will maintain the rechement which developed during war, and which, despite the calemity ers, the Reparations Commission been assured, lacks only finishing in assured, lacks only finishing well informed quarters to-day i-asserted that Mr. Vissering's visit erlin was made imperative by the very of the attitude of American The Reparations Commiss s. The Reparations Commission se that much of the occasional disconnection both sides of the Channel has aused by the fact that the Gerian frequently has been to seek an Anglo-German entente to counter each claims, and it is realized for such conditions the loan idea change of success. Mr. Viscon.

a charce of success. Mr. Visser-expected to impress on German ans the necessity of placing a'l face upward on the table if they want the neutrals, as well as the d States, to release their gold re-for the benefit of Europe

ANT ANGLO-FRENCH FORDNEY-M'CUMBER TARIFF BOOSTS, RATES ON FOODS

OLLOWING are the rates on foodstuffs in the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill, as reported by the Senate committee, compared with the Payne-Aldrich act, the Underwood act and the emergency

Payne-	Underwood	Emergency	Fordney- McCumber
Aldrich	45c (196 lb. bar.)		78c cwt
Wheat flour. 25%			30c 100 lbs
Cornmeal,&c 40c 100 lbs.	Free		90c 100 lbs
Oatmeal,&c1c lb.	30c 100 lbs.
Fish, canned .30%	15 to 20%		30%
Apples 25c bu.	10c bu.	30c bu.	30c bu.
Lemons11/2c a lb.	1/2c lb.		2c lb.
Plums and
Prunes 25c bu.	10c bu.		½c lb.
Walnuts, un-		744 E E
shelled3c a lb.	2c a lb.	- ceremon	4c lb.
Potat's, Irish 25c 60 lbs.	Free	25c 60 lbs.
Macaroni,&c 11/2 a lb.	1c lb.		2c lb.
Cattle $2 hd. to 271/2%	Free	30%	11/2 to 2c lb
Fresh beef11/c lb.	Free	2c lb.	31/2clb.
Fresh lamb lc lb.	Free	2c lb.	5c lb
Fresh pork 1 1/2c lb.	Free	2c lb.	3/c lb.
Bacon & ham 4c lb.	Free	25%	2c lb.
Milk, cond'd
br evap'd.2c lb.	Free	2c lb.	1 to 13 clb
Butter 6c lb	21/sc	6c lb.	8c lb.
Cheese6c lb.	20%	23%	5c lb. to 25%
Poultry, kid . 5c lb.	2c	4	6c lb.
Eggs5c doz.	Free		8c doz.
Almonda un		action 1	The state of the s

TWO TARIFF FIGHTS BRITISH MINISTRY WON BY FARM BLOC SPLIT OVER ULSTER

Forced to Drop Heavy Duty on Bricks.

CHANGE TO HELP HOUSING

rehabilitation of Europe. Cvanide Is Restored to Free List in Aid of the Gold Mining Industry.

WASHINGTON, May 29 .- The Senate so effective that its influ- Finance Committee majority in charge international by the Republican agricultural-tariff might just as well be dropped, bloc. In addition it receded from its re- 25 per cent. ad valorem on bricks

In lieu of the duty it had proposed il be impossible to float any kind fority submitted a provision that if commodity imported from the United States an equal duty would be imcountries. At the request of Democrats, opponents of the original committee proposal, consideration of the Craig's request also was admitted by > the form recommended by the commit- ent, however, learns that Michael Colnattee, with rial from Samuel Untermyer, counsel of the pact with Eamon de Valera and for the Lockwood committee in New the plans for new elections were reaurging removal of tariff duties on build- Lloyd George and the Cabinet, but ing materials in an effort to break an with those explanations the Irish Republican support outside of its own ranks. The vote was 46 to 14. Republicans supporting the proposals were:

Bursum (N. M.), Capper (Kan.),
Cummins (Iowa), Elkins (W. Va.),
Cummins (Iowa), Elkins (W. Va.),

Bursum (N. M.), Capper (Kan.), Cummins (Iowa), Elkins (W. Va.), Ernst (Ky.), Johnson (Cal.), Joues (Wash.), Kellogg (Minn.), Keyes (N. H.), Ladd (N. D.), La Foilette (Wis.), Lodge (Mass.), McKinley (Ill.), McKayes (N. Kary (Ore.), Nelson (Minn.), Newberry (Mich.), Nicholson (Colo.), Norbeck (S. D.), Norris (Neb.), Oddie (Nev.), Phipps (Col.), Rawson (Iowa), Spencer (Mo.), Sterling (S. D.), Republicans opposing the amendment were: Ball (Del.), Brandegee (Conn.), Dillingham (Vt.), France (Md.), Freinghysen (N. J.), Gooding (Idaho), Hale (Me.), McCumber (N. D.), McLean (Conn.), Page (Vt.), Pepper (Pa.), Smoot (Utah), Sutherland (W. Va.), Warren (Wyo.).

After disposing of the Oddie amendment the Senate turned to other items ment the Senate turned Importance of Cyanide.

Chairman McCumber of the Finance ommittee and Senator Frelinghuysen of oddle amendment, while Senators Oddle, terling and Pittman (Dem., Nev.) led Sterling and Pittman (Pem., See.) for the fight for the proposal. Senator Sterling called attention to the importance of cyanide to the gold and silver mining and citrus fruit industries and asserted that the proper protection of them called for free cyanide. "The gold mining industry," said

Continued on Page Two.

DIER BOOKS OPENED TO CRIMINAL ACTION UNDER TAFT RULING

Banton to Subpœna All Accounts From Receiver for Prosecution.

Where $3,000,000 Went and Who Is Responsible May Be Determined.

C. A. STONEHAM ACCUSED

Bankruptcy Creditor Says He ACTS ON PLAYERS' STATUS Failed to Report Deal as Law Requires.

o-day removed the obstacles in the and papers of the defunct brokerage on two motions made by counsel for the brokerage firm. He refused to effect being that District Attorney Banton is free to subpæna the books, so that he may go over them with a view of determining whether crimina proceedings are warranted.

The Chief Justice also refused to Irish Leaders Satisfy Premier advance the case for argument before the Supreme Court, on the ground that it was not of sufficient importance to warrant such action.

after the decision the Dier firm. Otto A. Schlobhom, counsel for Mr. Emrich, said the receiver would not interfere with the books being turned over to the District Attorney.

unsel for the Dier company, who asked torney. He informed the court that application for injunction had been to Judge Hand in the United received instructions from the Cabi-net. That the Admiralty had sent that while it had been denied Judge Hand issued a stay until the case could be decided by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court in turn issued a temporary order continuing the action

District Attorney Banton, through Mr.

Banton Awaits Official Notice.

As soon as District Attorney Banton receives a certified copy of the order of the Supreme Court in releasing the books of the Dier firm for his inspection he will send for the records.

On the day of the failure of the Dier concern Mr. Banton had sent several of his assistants to the offices of the company. They found that the books were in possession of the receivers. Attorneys for the brokers insisted that the receiver should not turn over the books to the District Attorney, as such would be an infringement of the firm's constitutional right.

tention that counsel for the company had failed to stipulate this privilege when the books were seized by the re-

Many complaints have been received by the District Attorney since the fallure of the Dier company, and it was virtually necessary that Mr. Banton have the books before he could present the case successfully to a Grand Jury of William Rosendorf, 5 years old, son of William Rosendorf, 5 years old, son

STONEHAM SUMMONED ON CRIMINAL CHARGES

Will Plead To-morrow in Action by Dier Creditor.

een summoned, in connection with the lier bankruptcy case, to appear in the lagistrate's court to-morrow to answer a charge of having violated Section 57 of the Penal Code. This provides not any one in the brokerage business

Continued on Page Three.

D'Annunzio Gets Ship Concession From Russia

ONDON, May 29.—A Central News dispatch from Rome says that during the conference on Sunday between Gabriele D'Annunzio and George Tchitcherin, the Bolshevist Foreign Minister, D'Annunzio obtained concessions for a shipping service be-ister, D'Annunzio obtained conces-sions for a shipping service be-tween Italy and Russia.

D'Annunzio is president of the Italian shipping federation which is seeking to acquire vessels from the Italian Government for the purpose of opening up trade with Russia.

FINDS DELAYS ENDED BASEBALL NO TRUST, HIGH COURT RULES

> Baltimore Club of Old Federal League Loses Long Fight Asking Damages.

Decree States That the Original Game Is Not Liable Under Sherman Act.

in the Supreme Court of the United which sought tremendous damages from the old leagues.

the activities of a baseball player and those of a lawyer or Chautauqua lecmerely as an incident to his business. Organized baseball was put into the has been in the courts for seven years, the Supreme Court affirmed the dereversed the District of Columbia Supreme Court, which had awarded $80,000 damages, directing that judgment be awarded in treble that amount as pro-vided by the law.

Baltimore Club's Claim.

When the Federal League collapsed the Baltimore club owners brought suit alleging that the "bareball trust" had put it out of business by illegal means, following the purchase of other clubs belonging to the league. The defendants in the suit were the National League of Professional Baseball Clubs, the National Exhibition Company, the Brooklyn Ball Club, et al. The defendants, in addition to those mentioned in the title of the case, were the American League the presidents of both the American and National leagues and what is called the National Commission.

The charse was miade that this group. When the Federal League collaps

The charge was made that this group that since the baseball clubs traveled from State to State it cherefore followed a further stay in the counsel for the that the business was one amenable to the laws regulating interstate commerce.

"We are of the opinion that the Court led to the Supreme se against the Dier laws right" said the court, through Justice Holmes. "The business was continuously and bucket brigades were ceived; and it is necessary to remove the seventh forms that since the baseball clubs traveled that the voters of the country gentrom State to State it cherefore followed ont indorse the adverse opinion expressed by the citizens of the laws regulating interstate commerce.

"We are of the opinion that the Court lilinois, Indiana. Pennsylvania and of Appeals was right" said the court, through Justice Holmes. "The business was continuously fire.

The section was supplied amply, however, by two other Croton mains, alcohol the laws regulating interstate commerce.

"We are of the opinion that the Court lilinois, Indiana. Pennsylvania and of Appeals was right" said the court, through Justice Holmes. "The business was one amenable to opinion expressed by the citizens of floors in apartments there was little supply and bucket brigades were ceived; and it is necessary to remark.

the Court of Appeals, that a firm of lawyers sending out a member to argue a case or the Chautauqua Lecture Bureau sending out a lecturer Joes not engage in commerce because the lawyer or the lecturer goes to another State.

The court held that the restrictions by contract that prevented the plaintiff from getting players to break their barretty and other conduct descended the second of the gains rid other conduct charged to de-fendants were not interference with commerce among the States and the decision of the Court of Appeals was affirmed.

BOY RECOVERS SPEECH. IN PART, 1,000 FT. IN AIR Mother's Joy Ends When Child Relapses After Flight.

Nash Rockwood, counsel for E. D.
Dier & Co., said:

"I don't want to discuss the matter or to say what further action I may take until I have had an opportunity to study the decision of the court."

of William Rosendorf, 6 years old, son of a Washington, D. C., fur Importer.
The child's mother, Mrs. Rosendorf, was amazed to find the little fellow almost succeeding in overcoming the lingual difficulty that has kept him practically The child's mother, Mrs. Rosendorf, was amazed to find the little fellow almost other flight.

Mrs. Rosendorf stated to-day that William's hearing has been perfect since birth, but he has been virtually bereft of speech. The child can utter a few words and form short sentences, but cannot sustain a conversation. When he went with his mother for an air ride he became excited and for a few monts he clapped his hands and began to talk like other children, much to her bonus raiders two-thirds of the Demogration.

A Livingston Allen, pilot of the plane, says he knew of a similar case. He is arging Mrs. Rosendorf to permit ble.

M'CUMBER WINS FIVE DEMOCRATS, ENDING DEADLOCK ON BONUS

Simmons, Jones, Gerry, Walsh and Reed Give Him Support.

WILL VOTE TO-MORROW

Minority Party Accepts Responsibility for Releasing Bill.

DEMAND CASH RAID

Senate Situation Declared Such as to Stall Measure This Session.

By LOUIS SEIBOLD.

New York Herald Bareau.) Washington, D. C., May 29. floor of the Senate.

A deadlock of Republican commit seek the aid of their Democratic Democratic members whose other bonus Republicans to order a is had a Su80,000

In be pro(Utah), Freiinghuysen (K. J.), Calder
(N. Y.), Dillingham (Vt.) and McLean dictated solely by a desire to win the

In the most significant development of the muddle over the bonus in the Senate is that there will not be Republican votes enough to put it over in the first instance and probably not a sufficient number to override a Presidential veto, which is expected by both sides.

The important thing is to get the bonus to a ballot to give candidates for reelection an ailbi, which they believe will save them from the threat.

lieve will save them from the threat-ened political reprisals of a doubtful number of ex-service men who place a commercial value on their patriotic the bonus Republicans have made with the bonus Democratic Senators and standing up to their the country as a bipartisan production. The fact is the action of the Democratic Senators in indicating their approval of the Republican bonus scheme fixes the responsibility for imposing further and stupendous burdens of taxation on the people squarely on Democratic shoulders, despite the charges of waste and extravagance against the majority.

Democratic members of the Finance Committee who indicated their readiness to help report out a bonus bill teacher the flow. Storekeepers within three blocks in Broadway reported damage that is not the case, and I shall undertone that is not the case, and I shall undertone that is not the case, and I shall undertone the flow. Storekeepers within three blocks in Broadway reported damage to goods in their cellars. More than 100 that is not the case, and I shall undertone that is not the case, and I shall the bonus Republicans have made the projects concocted by the Republicans in the House and Senate. They will seek to amend the mongrel Fordney-McCumber measure to provide for the payment of cash down to every service man who would be entitled to it under the measure.

They will then offer all sorts of absurd proposals designed to be an entitled to be under the measure.

They will then offer all sorts of absurd proposals designed to be an entitled to the measure.

They will then offer all sorts of absurd proposals designed to be an entitled to it under the measure.

They will then offer all sorts of absurd proposals designed to be an entitled to the measure.

They will then offer all sorts of absurd proposals designed to be a conducted to the chief engineers of the clip to released the impediment in the speech Fordney-McCumber measure to proof William Rosendorf, 6 years old, son vide for the payment of cash down to surd proposals designed to hoodwink the ex-service men into thinking the

Continued on Page Seven.

U. S. Army in 25th Place Based on Population

al Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALI

American army is fou teenth in the list of the armies of the world in actual numerical strength, and twenty-fifth when compared to total population, according to the following table issued by the War De-

1,370,000 ltaly 250,000 1,085,000 Gt. Britain 237,500 818,000 lndia 221,000 571,000 Spain 216,000 310,000 Turkey 188,500 302,000 Fumania 185,000 290,000 U. States 158,000

BROADWAY FLOOD SWAMPS WEST END

Bursting Main at 89th St. Shoots 5,000,000 Gallons Over Big Area.

ERUPTION LIKE A GEYSER

Jewelry Man in Danger on Bulging Asphalt-Stocks in Cellars Damaged.

the vicinity of Eighty-ninth street had Staten Island flood scare for two hours yesterday flammed," in that the Hylan prothe cellars for blocks around, stopping real rapid transit. He said it all traffic in Broadway and threaten-

John Hess, a jewelry salesman of 1361 Madison avenue, was crossing city. He added that if even ambition is to put the Republican about 2 o'clock when he felt the pavement rising. The asphalt began to immediate results of enough to Mr. McCumber and the bulge slowly and then there was a nature would ensue rumbling sound like a little earthbonus bill reported to the Senate. A quake, he said. Hess gave two jumps Hylan had recently made some formal vote will be recorded on and landed on the sidewalk just as servations in which he had "p Wednesday after the Democratic com- the street pavement for forty or fifty feet around had been lifted up three vice to embarrass their Republican feet. Then it burst and a big stream Governor in order to remove h of water shot into the air.

Hess ran down Broadway until he met Policemen Malcolmson and O'Connor who found the street blowing up and reserves arrived and the racket, together with the streams running through the streets and over the side real sport. In short order several streets, including West End avenue, were floating fleets of battleships and ure craft moved quickly from bath-

Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity found the big gates and shut off the flow. There was some appre-hension for a time, as it was feared the whole upper part of Manhattan on the West Side would be shut off from water supply and bucket brigades were ceived; and it is necessary formed.

The water ran ankle deep down Broadway over the sidewalks to Eighty-eighth street and streams a foot deep end political reprisals of a doubtful number of ex-service men who place a commercial value on their patriotic services.

Where Responsibility Rests.

Under the terms of the deal which the bonus Republicans have made with the bonus Democratic Senators of the deal which with the bonus Democratic Senators of the water there was three test of Broadway south of Eighty-ninth street storekeepers shut their doors and standing up to their when the water tried to sweep back project is designed to furnish you rapid transit."

Here the Governor was interqued by cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there was three feet of water in some by cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there was three feet of water in some by cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there was three feet of water in some by cries of "Yes" and "No" and he remarked that there seemed to be cries of "Yes" tress Off St. John's River.

Jacksonville, May 29.—Eighteen survivors of boats which were unable to withstand the gale which passed up the coast yesterday were reported to-night to be aboard the Shipping Board eteamship Sun Dance, as she stood off Mayport awaiting an opportunity to dash across a waiting an opportunity to dash across trunk line freight and passenger formel."

for this port for repairs, went ashore on for this port for repairs, went ashore on St. George's bar, near the mouth of St. John's River. The crew made shore in asafety, however.

A steam yacht was reported in radio "Not that the project in which the

HYLAN TUNNEL PLAN IS B. & O. TERMINAL GOVERNOR CHARGES

Says It Means Giving $60,-000,000 Present From City of N. Y.

WARNS STATEN ISLA

Freight Tube Can't Sol Its Transit Problem. He Advises.

PAYS RESPECT TO HEARS!

Calls Him 'the Interests' Back of Mayor in Helping Deceive Public.

Speaking on the Staten Island freight tunnel project of the Hylan admin Gov. Miller last night told more than 1,500 persons at the meeting of the Richmond County Re publican organization at the Coliseum Authority, will not give Staten I would furnish a freight terming the pathway of those selfish who were designedly seeking this city W. R. Hearst, without name, "apparently the It will soon cease to b possible to get away with the te terests' return from Europe to give sel and advice." These reference

West Side would be shut off from water and there might be real danger from three fire.

We all agree, but I am going to say some things before I get through her to-night with which you may not agree Island 'rapid transit.

Seven of them were survivors from the achooner Marian N. Cobb, which went aground to-day and was not expected to hold together through the night others were from launches which were unable to ride out the gale.

The gale played havoc with the St. Augustine chrimp fleet, while the British and for this port for repairs, went ashore on St. George's bar, near the mouth of St. John's River. The crew made shore in affect words, to provide Staten Island.

That was a project for trunk lines and

DORSEMENT NEEDED

Attract Investors.

is and London Resume Neotiations to Formulate an Understanding.

merely finding $1,000,000,000 ghout the world for stabilizing eal task being undertaken by J. teparations Commission. The sucrestoration of American confiof Franco-British entente, which already realized, is the greatest e without wasting time, for used in the construction of buildings.

'In insisting that the stage be cleared European collaboration by European peace,"

Senate Committee Majority Statement in House Postponed in Public Interest, Says

> Churchill. MAY SEND TROOPS SOUTH and Demand Removal of Forces From Ulster.

oppright, 1922, by THE NEW YORK HERALD

Ulster again has divided the British hinted at the possibility that British forces again might have to be used in not take the responsibility of moving his men into southern territory to

Mr. Churchill. THE NEW YORK HERALD corresponding, believing that as Berlin has been possible to put the Entente on a leged combination of dealers in such a possible to put the Entente on a reworking basis than has been possible to put the Entente on a reworking basis than has been possible to put the Entente on a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute staved off a vote at that time and later reconstitute the possible to the state it elerefore followed the referee, Mr. Earlich, also opposed it.

With those explanations the Irish spokesmen coupled demands for the referee, Mr. Earlich, also opposed it.

We are of the ophison that the Court of Appeals was right. We as referred to business. The counsel for the referee, Mr. Earlich, also opposed it.

We are of the ophison that the case against the Diet of Appeals was right. We are reported to the feel plant the Cabinet using the entire day to a vote at that time and later reconstitution. The Dublin delegates kept to their reconstant time and later reconstitution. The Dublin delegates kept to their reconstant the Cabinet using the time of the books and team fourth the case against the Diet of Appeals was right. We are reported to the feel its and on the case agai Hesitate Over Belfast. Unfortunately, the outbreak of incen-ressure to abandon the entire Irish blicy of the Government, in view of the failure to reach a definite settlement, which the Government promised nearly of a year ago.

a year ago.

The Tory element of conservative opinion again is advocating the reconquest of southern Ireland, upon the grounds that the Free State treaty his been violated. Mr. Lloyd George, howbeen violated. Mr. Lloyd George, how-ever, is said to have made a plea to his colleagues not to take a backward step, pointing out that if Great Brit-ain is to lead the march to peace as outlined in the Prime Minister's post-

The District Attorney set up the con

Charles A. Stoneham, owner of the Giants and the Casco Stables and part owner of the Havana race track, has been summoned, in connection with the says he knew of a similar case. He is urging Mrs. Rosendorf to permit him to take the child on an air trip 5,000 feet messages as in distress near the mouth city was then engaged was to do